General Information

Instructor: All lessons are under the supervision of Alena Meacham, Director of UConn’s Horse Riding Programs. Alena is a member of the UConn faculty with a BS in Equine Business Management from Johnson and Wales University. She teaches UConn’s Horse Practicum riding lessons to students each semester and coaches the Equestrian Hunt Seat, Western, and Dressage Teams to compete in intercollegiate competitions.
Facilities: Lessons will be held in UConn’s Horsebarn Hill Arena located on Horsebarn Hill Road, Storrs, CT. The arena measures 120’ X 220’ with a heated lobby and a viewing area. All horses come equipped with their own tack equipment.

Weather Cancellations: In case of weather cancellations, the lesson will be rescheduled for the week following the session. Riders will be notified by e-mail or via phone. No refunds will be given.

Requirements: Riders are required to wear long pants and hard-soled shoes with heels. NO SNEAKERS!!! All riders are required to wear a hard hunt cap (which will be supplied). Riders must be able to independently tack and mount their horse. Lessons are available from Advanced Beginner through Advanced levels. Riders must be 11 years of age or older.

Procedure: All riders should report to the UConn Horse Barn 30 minutes early to tack up in order to start the lesson on time. Horses will be assigned to riders. Following each lesson, riders must cool out horses, untack, and clean all equipment used (this will take approximately 30 minutes). Please contact Alena Meacham at (860) 377-3779 if you need further information.

Level Descriptions:

Advanced Beginner: Riders must be able to walk and post the trot. Riders will work on learning diagonals and jumping position.

Dressage: Riders must be able to walk, trot and canter on any horse, and ride with others in a group. Students will work on suppleness, balance of the horse, and improving the horse’s gaits through lateral work.

Intermediate: Riders must walk and trot in a group. Riders will work on the canter, cavaletti exercises, and small jumps.

Western: Riders must walk, jog and lope in a group on an intermediate level horse. Students will work on their equitation and suppleness of the horse as well as patterns.

Advanced: Riders must walk, trot and canter with or without stirrups on any horse. They must be able to ride the horse on the bit and jump a 2’6” course of fences. Students will work on advanced flat and jumping exercises, course work, and developing their abilities to ride and train horses.
